

Exercise 08 - Calculator

The goal for this exercise is to create a calculator that does the following:

add, subtract, get the sum, multiply, get the power, and find the factorial

In order to do this please fill out each function with your solution. Make sure to return the value so you can test it in Jest! To see the expected value take a look at the spec file that houses the Jest test cases.